The Honorable Ronald Reagan
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. President:

Secretary of State Schultz's speech today on Vietnam is excellent in that it explains the real threat of Communism and it relates that threat to Nicaragua.

His use of the words "Communists" and "Nicaraguan Communists" will help to highlight the Soviet/Cuban/Communist Nicaraguan connection and what we are trying to accomplish in Central America.

I applaud and strongly re-enforce the continued use of Communism in explaining what is wrong in Central America.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read 'Newt', written over a horizontal line.

P.S. Secretary Schultz's speech segment on McNeil/Lehrer presented our cause very powerfully. He clearly hit a home run.
